

QUALITY POLICY

Each individual has a responsibility to understand, utilize and continually improve business processes to attain overall internal and external customer satisfaction while meeting all mutually agreed requirements, applicable industry standards and protecting the well-being of all personnel, the environment and assets.